THE STUDENTS OF CLAREMONT CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL PRESENT,

Hickory Log

HICKORY, NORTH CAROLINA

IN THREE ACTS, THE 1954

FOREWORD

EACH day within these portals of Hickory High School is presented another act in the drama that is life. In this LOG we have attempted to present a small portion of the scenes enacted here—the work, the play; the joys, the sorrows; the victories, the defeats . . . all those things that make our school the institution which we love. It is our hope and aim that when looking back in future years, you, the actors and actresses, will re-enact the past in the form of this, the 1954 HICKORY LOG.

DEDICATION

"To see her is to admire her, and to know her is to love her."

Unselfishness, wittiness, naturalness, friendliness, enthusiastic school spirit, thoughtfulness—all these are combined in the personality of our dedicatee.

Her unselfishness, exemplified in her sponsorship of student activities and in giving freely of her time to chaperoning students who attend the various conventions, makes up only a small part of her contributions to our school. Far more important, though, is her role as adviser and teacher—first as a friend to discuss our problems and then as a source of wisdom from which to learn. For these reasons we dedicate this, our 1954 Log, to our "Big Sister," Mrs. Stamey Sigmon.

THE BACKERS

OUR SCHOOL BOARD

Seven civic minded citizens of Hickory, elected by parents and taxpayers, meet with the city school superintendent to better conditions in the local system. They handle such important jobs as election of teachers, principals, and superintendent; and school improvements including the addition for the high school building planned for this summer.

School board members have four year terms of office. Work of the board is vital to the welfare not only of Hickory High, but to the other schools in the city.

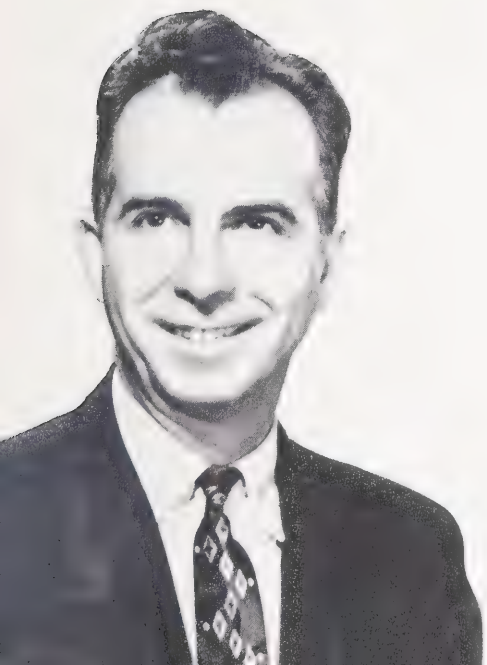

Three years at the helm of the city school system have enabled William S. Hamilton, superintendent, to steer the local schools on to better grounds. Hickory High became accredited with the Southern Association of Secondary Schools largely because of the guiding influence of Mr. Hamilton.

Under his jurisdiction come the educational policies, including textbook selection and teacher rating, which are used in the Hickory system. Mr. Hamilton also works closely with the School Board.

Occupied though he is with affairs of school, Mr. Hamilton still finds time for membership in the Kiwanis Club and Hickory's First Methodist Church. Mr. Hamilton is a civic leader as well as a leader in educational fields.

THE PRODUCER

HAROLD HEWITT

In charge of bookkeeping and payrolls for the city school system is Mr. Harold Hewitt. Now in his fifth year as general business manager of the school system, Mr. Hewitt is a graduate of Newton Business College.

Twenty-two years, virtually a lifetime, W. D. Cottrell has devoted to Hickory High. The principalship of a bustling modern high school is no task for the lazy man; indeed it is a job requiring constant and continued effort and interest, a job that Mr. Cottrell is well qualified to handle.

There are worries and days when seemingly nothing goes right, yet a glow of pride can be felt by Mr. Cottrell at times like graduation, when four years of toil on behalf of both principal and student reach their climax . . . yes, then twenty-two years spent in the betterment of H.H.S. is well worth the trouble.

THE DIRECTOR

Eleanor Hull

Miss Eleanor Hull, office secretary, graduated from Hickory High in 1952 and has held her position since her senior year. She is the capable assistant to Mr. Cottrell and is always ready to help the students of H.H.S.

An old friendship is renewed as Principal W. D. Cottrell and C. W. Phillips discuss the 1953 College Day program.

C'est si bon aptly describes this Apache dance performed by Pat Holder and Courtney Miller in the Dramatic Club's chapel program.

Greeted with anticipation by the Seniors, expectation by the Juniors, and a tiny bit of apprehension by the Sophomores, 1953 was ushered into Hickory High School.– The first three months were filled with a flurry of activity, including both the usual and the unusual . . . The rush of registra-

Busy as bees! Huh—They'll never get any biology done like this!

A Pepsi soothes the savage nerves and helps the "Twig" staff meet their deadline dilemma.

Suddenly it was winter—a rip-roaring, fast moving winter with the days growing short and the classes growing longer. The feeling of newness had worn off by now and the pace of activities was heightened . . . the senior play, "Take Care Of My Little Girl," concerts by the chorus, Christmas parties galore, those wonderful

Norman Punch's candidate was on the way to victory when "Marylin Monroe" Lefevers gave him her support.

It's the culmination of a long year's work for Log staff member Ann Aiken as she receives her 1953 Log from Claire Johnson and Ervin Huffman.

From the expression on Jean Radcliff's face a major catastrophe must have occurred. (Maybe she dropped her big orange drink.)

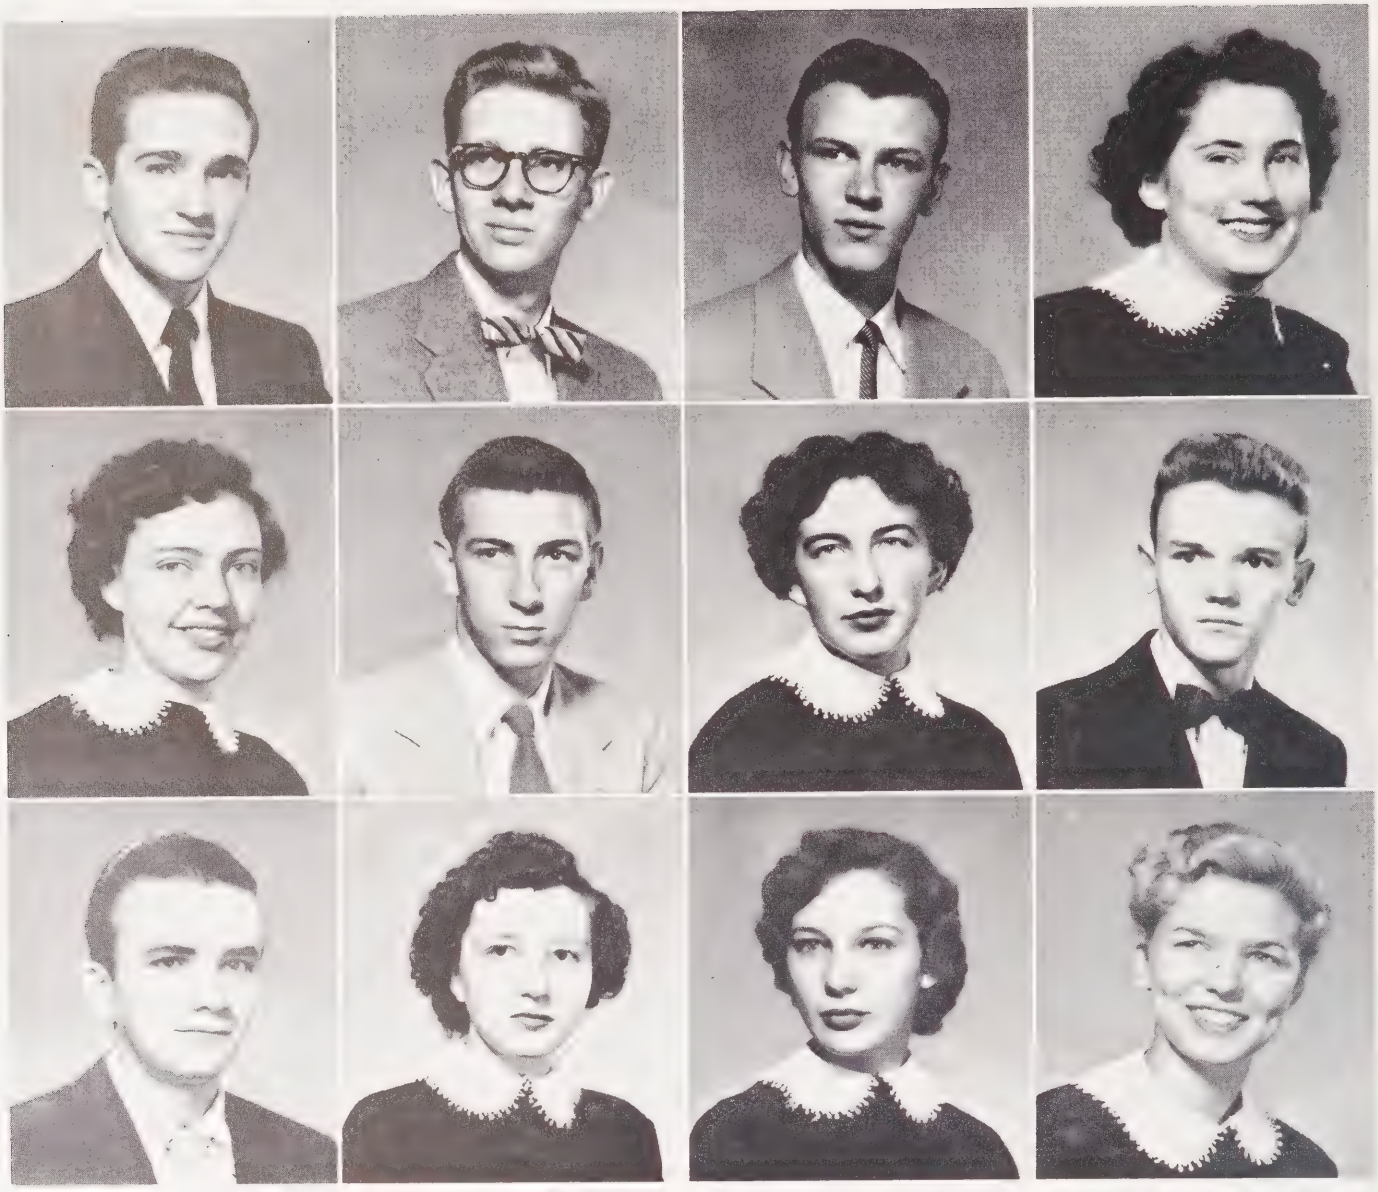

Christmas holidays, welcoming in the New Year, that long-awaited snow, those exciting basketball games, the March of Dimes, plans for graduation, the Beauty Contest.—All these helped to make this a wonderful season and, then, just a little later, we saw the end of winter.

"We'll sew up the 'RIP'pers,"—the theme of the Log float in the 1953 Homecoming parade, has its points.

Taking advantage of the opportunity offered on College Day, Eddie Setzler and William Paraham discuss their plans for the future.

Could it be that Mr. Cottrell and Mrs. Reese's students have discovered the secret of perpetual motion?

"Deck the school with strands of tinsel" seems to be the theme of Mrs. Sikes' room this Christmas.

And so it was spring. Time was running out and we ran with it. There were a million things we had to squeeze into a few short months . . . Junior Play, Sadie Hawkins Day, the Twirp Dance, those exciting spring-time Conventions, the thrill of receiving our Locs, afternoon baseball games, coronation of a new Beauty

The sound that's truly music to the ear—George announcing "Dismissed for lunch."

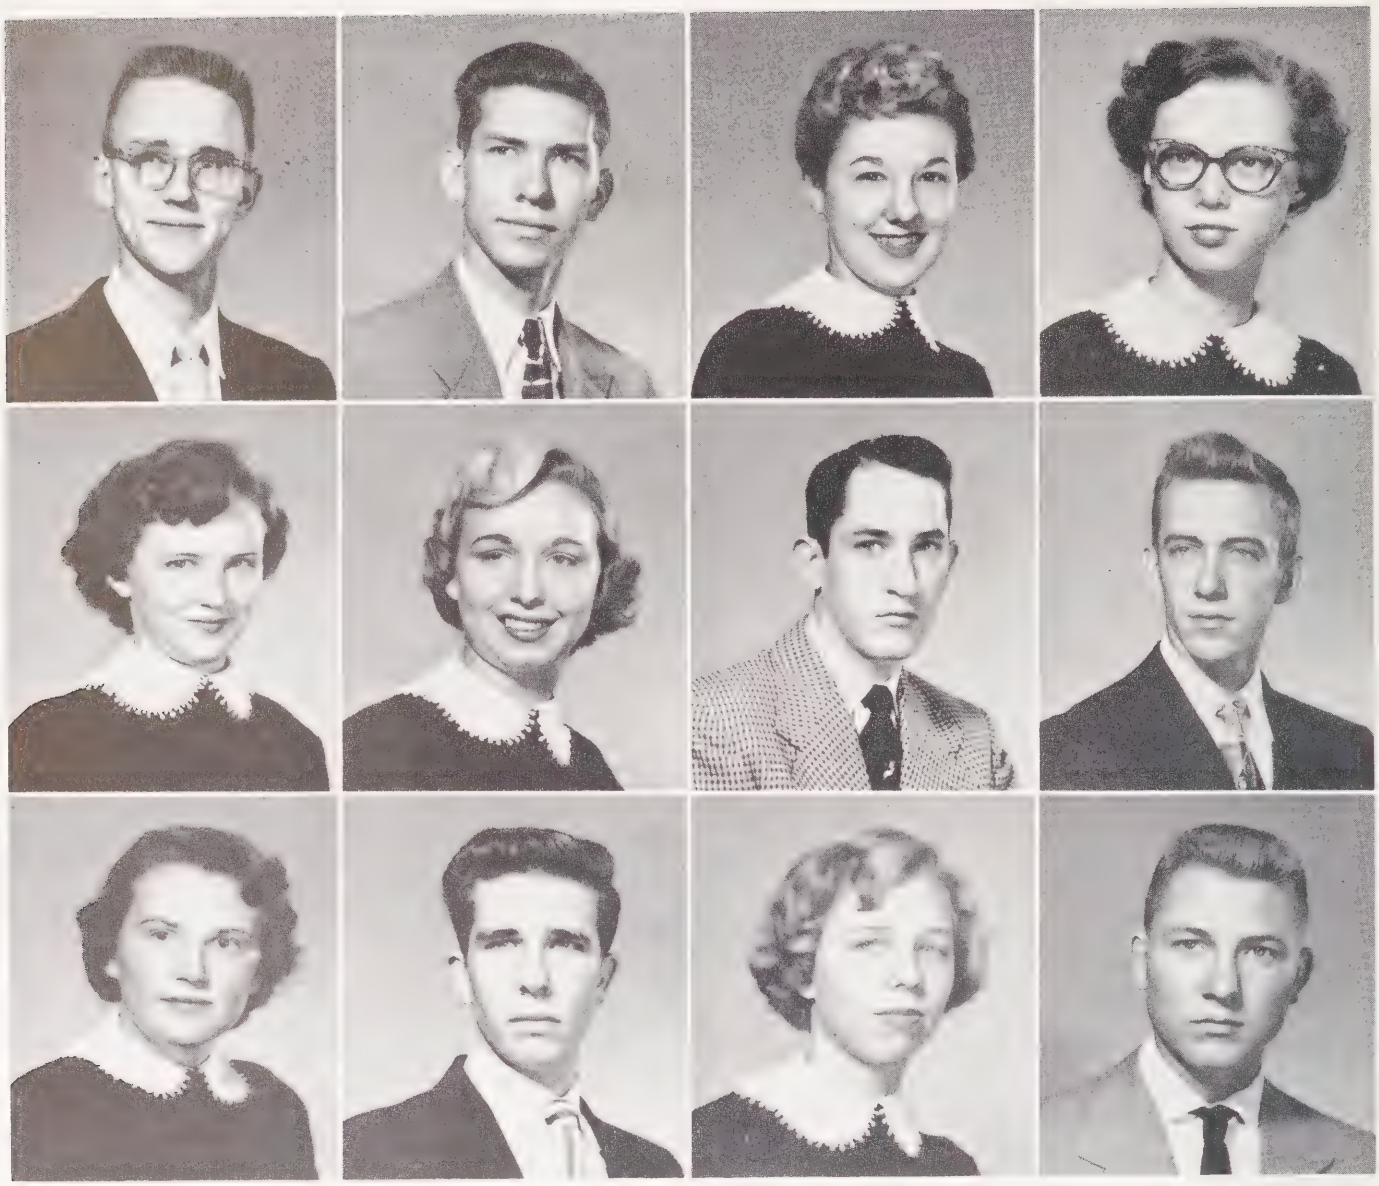

Queen, the enchanting evening—Junior-Senior, selecting Commencement speakers, election of Girl and Boy of the Year, graduation edition of the "Twig," Senior week, and the grand climax—graduation.—Yes another year is gone and all the wonderful events it brought have become "just for the memories."

The pause that refreshes—half-time to regain a voice lost cheering our team on to victory.

The woman always gets her man at H.H.S. on Sadie Hawkin's Day. That's the time of year when many a handsome little Abner, in full Dogpatch regalia, finds himself trapped by a cute Daisy Mae, resplendent in pigtails and hair ribbons. Climaxing the day's activities comes the Twirp Dance with many of the fellows sporting vegetable corsages.

Bunny-hopping at open house—cutting classes . . . funeral-home grass . . . where's our truck? . . . Conglomerations of crepe paper . . . beautiful girls in the newest cars . . . stirring music . . . Miss H.H.S. . . . fabulous floats an evening of football thrills . . . high stepping majorettes . . . popcorn . . . nippy air . . . cowbells and shrill yells . . . touchdown thrills—All helped to make the 1953 homecoming a great success.

"What's my line?" . . . Rehearsals till midnight . . . "Diapers!" . . . No telephone Oh! those love scenes! . . . Just once more . . . those last minute changes in the script "But all sororities have dinosaurs" . . . coffee breaks . . . the voice that wasn't there—Out of this somehow managed to come the Senior Play, "Take Care Of My Little Girl," the highlight of 1953 for the audience as well as the cast.

INTERMISSION

"BASED UPON THE PEOPLE'S WILL"

School-spirited Billy Wolfe buys a football program from Pat Schell and Thomas Bolick, members of the Student Council.

STUDENT COUNCIL

OFFICERS

Thomas Gordon Bolick President
David Chronister Vice-President
Mickey Clemmer Recording Secretary
Linda Headen Corresponding Secretary
Anne Finegan Treasurer
Tommy Henderson Chaplain
Mr. Gene Miller Adviser

Student Council members have many and varied jobs and are kept busy with student activities throughout the year. Registration brings them to school a day or two early; then they are faced with the job of getting ads for the football programs which are sold at the games and feeding our team afterwards.

Running a lost and found department, welcoming new members of the student body, taking charge of assembly, conducting all class elections, and promoting any project for the betterment of the school are other duties of our efficient council.

First row: Coach Miller, Mickey Clemmer, Thomas Gordon Bolick, David Chromister, and Anne Finegan.

Third row: Harry Short, Dallas Abee, Tommy Henderson, Bill Ballew, and Jerry Deese.

"THOSE THAT GO BETWEEN"

HOME ROOM REPRESENTATIVES

A conductor of business between his home room and the Student Council, the Home Room Representative serves his classmates as a voice in their government. Each member of the lower house informs his home room of Council activities and in turn presents ideas and suggestions of students to the Council.

Telephoning the homes of absentees to find out and record the reason for the absence is another duty of the Representatives which is performed daily.

the Hickory Log

Beverly Brown, Business Manager of the Log, concentrates on balancing the book.

Checking and double-checking the "dummy", Anna Gordon Lewis, Editor-in-Chief of the Log, has a full time job.

"RECORDS THAT DEFY TRUTH OF TIME"

"Have you finished those pictures yet?"—"Who's going after the 'wet ads' (cokes)?"—What! My writing's filed under Landscape?"

Such is a typical Log period—but work somehow seems to sandwich itself in, and, to the amazement of all, the 1954 Log goes to press.

Log staff members are chosen from applications submitted each spring, and the following September they go to work in earnest deciding on the theme and color and getting those much needed ads. Pictures have to be taken, write-ups are begun, and from then on the time is taken up with building up the "skeleton" into a full picture of the year's activities.

Tension mounts to an electrifying degree until the pride and joy of the staff returns. At last there is peace —at least until the time of application is upon us again.

Glenn Helton, Beverly Brown and Edwin Setzler, business staff members wind up a day's work.

Miss Barbara Corpening and Mrs. Doris Sigmon, our untiring advisers, map out new ideas for our 1954 Log.

Ann Aiken and Anna Gordon Lewis relax while other members of the editorial complete last minute write-ups.

the twig

Barbara Sherrill, Business Manager of the Twig, is busy adding figures on the ledger.

Co-Editors of the Twig, Barbara Turner and Nancy Moser, proofread the "galley sheets" for mistakes.

"NEWSPAPERS ARE THE WORLD'S MIRRORS"

"Like to put an ad in the Twig?" This phrase is probably familiar to every business establishment in Hickory. Getting enough advertisements to pay for the paper, publicizing and circulating are the duties of the business staff.

"Know any news?" is neard as reporters from the editorial staff go about uncovering scoops. The duties of the editorial staff also include typing the news, making the "dummy," and proofreading for mistakes.

As a reward for the fruits of their combined efforts both staffs are proud of the praise and many national awards for their bi-weekly publication.

How many "only know what they read in the newspapers" puzzles Charles Abernethy, Janice Starnes, and other members on the Twig business staff.

Mrs. Burch Allison and Mrs. Earl Reese, advisers of the Twig, proudly read the accomplishment of their staff.

Achieved Without Enthusiasm"

CLUB

Putting Hickory High before the Eyes of the Student Body and the community is the task of the Teenaiders Pep Club. An important job of these H.H.S. boosters is the supporting of the athletics department both by attending games and by selling Tornado banners. Teenaiders also promote and publicize school sponsored plays, the annual magazine sales compaign, and other fund raising projects at Hickory High.

This year the idea of a bonfire pep rally and caravan to a football game was successfully introduced. Major projects this year included the selling of season basketball tickets, a new venture at H.H.S.; the promotion of the student–faculty basketball game; and the beautification of the Hickory High campus. And so the work of the Pep Club continues in spotlighting our activities.

BUS DRIVERS

Our bus drivers are selected from young men of our own school who have successfully passed all driving tests and have proven themselves capable of handling the responsibilities which this duty entails. The boys and girls who are their trusts depend on their never-failing punctuality and concern for safety to and from school. We owe a debt of gratitude to these boys to whom the safety of our students is foremost and ever important.

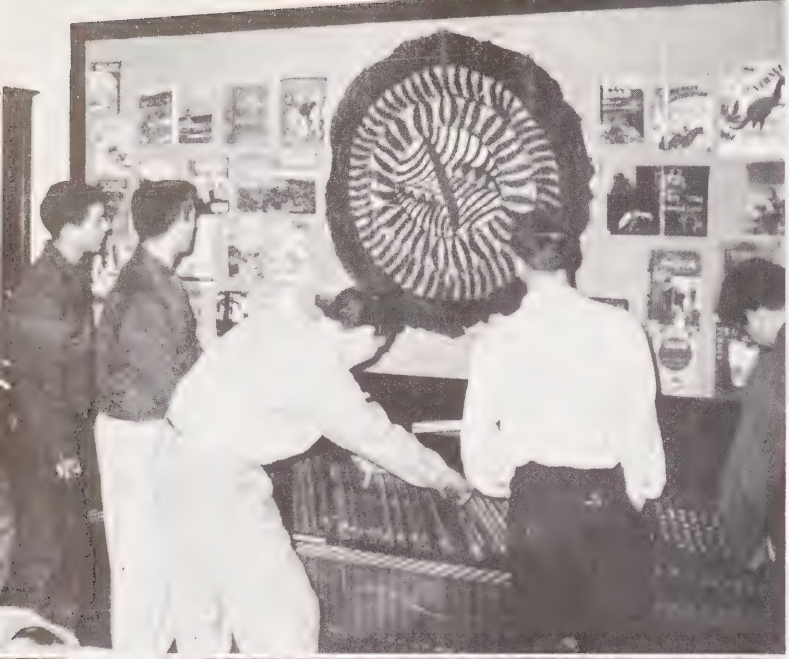

Left to right: Albert Reed, Arthur Mackie, and George Finger.

To Serve Us Seems Their Only Aim

JANITORS

Have you ever tried keeping house after six hundred students? Well, these three have. Well kept grounds and clean halls and class rooms are fruits of the labor which make us very proud of our school. Not only is cleanliness their worry but heat regulation too is their responsibility. "Busy bees" well describes our trio. Our hats are off to you, Arthur, George, and Albert.

"What can it be?" wonder five Hickory High boys. Digging deep into those encyclopedias and reference books, they come up with the answer that this mysterious object is a Hawaiian tapa cloth, made of beaten bark.

Head for the brush seems the general idea on this field trip! Books are temporarily forgotten as first period students of Mrs. John Lackey's biology class are taking up the study of ecology or plant succession.

The cheerleaders are chosen by their classmates at the last of the year with the exception of the Sophomores, whose elections are held at the first of the year.

Three cheers for a small group with a lot of pep!

COACHES

When Hickory High teams come onto the field or court they are backed by men who have proved themselves to be tops in the field of coaching, all three men are graduates of Lenoir Rhyne College where they excelled in the various sports.

In his first year on the H. H. S. staff is Troy Washam who was coach of Lenoir Rhyne's North State Conference championship baseball team for the last two years. Washam coaches baseball, J. V. basketball, and assists in football at H. H. S.

A three sport player at H. H. S. and L. R., Coach Gene Miller specializes in basketball. He has guided the Tornadoes to two conference championships in his three years at Hickory. Miller is also tennis coach.

Coach Frank Barger is in his first year as head football and track coach. Previously Barger produced two conference champion baseball teams for H.H.S. He is also girls' basketball coach. Barger played baseball and was an all conference football player for L. R.'s Bears.

FOOTBALL 1953

While Hickory High's teams won no honors during a dismal football season, individuals did get recognition. Coach Frank Barger was named as assistant for the East squad in the annual Optimist Bowl and to the advisory board of the Shrine Bowl. Captain Hume Collins was on the North Carolina Shrine team, while Norman Punch and A. O. Hefner played in the Optimist Bowl in Asheville. Collins and Punch were placed on the All-Western Conference team and received honorable mention for All-State. Collins was elected the team's Most Valuable Player, with Punch getting the trophy as the best defensive man and Hefner elected the best blocker.

RAIDERS RODE OVER H.H.S. 34-0

Belmont's big Red Raiders rolled to a 34-0 victory over the Red Tornadoes on College Field in the 1953 football opener. The Raiders, later champs of the Western Conference and playing with two All-Staters, completely dominated the game. Their slashing single-wing attack scored twice in the second period and once in the third. Hickory threatened once, in the second period, but the half-time horn stopped the drive on the Belmont six.

TORNADOES TOP NEWTON 13-0

A slashing, bruising Hickory ground attack and defense stopped the Newton Red Devils cold at Newton as Hickory took its first win of the 1953 season, 13-0. The Tornadoes, bouncing back from a loss to Belmont in the opener, drove for third and fourth period touchdowns. Norman Punch, moved from guard to fullback, and Wingback Hume Collins paced the Hickory offensive. Collins and Bob Lefevers scored for Hickory, with Collins adding one conversion.

FOOTBALL

H.H.S. SLAUGHTERS LINCOLNTON 39-0

Playing in a driving rain, Hickory High nevertheless ground out much yardage as they rolled over Lincolnton's impotent Wolves 39-0. The Tornadoes scored three quick touchdowns in the first period to sew things up early. Hume Collins scored three touchdowns for Hickory and added three extra points. Norman Punch drove through the line for two more Hickory scores and Robert Webb dashed 79 yards for the sixth tally.

TORNADOES UPSET LENOIR 19-13

The Tornadoes broke a five-year string of losses to the Lenoir Bearcats, as they took a 19-13 thriller at Lenoir. The Tornadoes played their best game of the season in gaining what was to be their last victory of the year. Collins hit off the left side with 2:58 gone in the ball game to score first for Hickory. The Tornadoes added another in the first as Collins returned a punt 62 yards for a score. Lenoir came back to tie it up in the third period, but Bob Lefevers dashed 28 yards to score Hickory's winning touchdown. A. O. Hefner and Marty Jarvis, along with Punch and Collins, played great defensive ball for the Tornadoes.

Lenoir	0	0	13	0—13

H.H.S. LOSES HOMECOMING THRILLER 13-7

Marion's tough Rippers ground out a 13-7 victory over Hickory to spoil the Tornadoes' Homecoming on College Field. J. T. Davis dashed 75 yards for a Marion touchdown to spark the win. Hickory drove 59 yards, with Robert Webb carrying the final twenty, to score their only touchdown. Hefner and Punch again provided Hickory's defensive work, but the Tornado offense could not move against the hard-charging Marion line.

MORGANTON SMASHES TORNADOES 35-6

Morganton's Wildcats completely bottled up Hickory's offense on College Field and Gene Turner and Bucky Reep ran wild to give the 'Cats a 35-6 victory. Jerry Prescott tossed a short pass to Hume Collins for Hickory's only score. The Tornadoes were simply out-charged by the tough Wildcats.

FOOTBALL

IRONMEN DOWN H.H.S. 19-13

A long kick-off return again paved the way for a Hickory loss as the Tornadoes fell to Cherryvill 19-13 at Cherryville. Trailing 12-0, the Tornadoes came back in the third period to make it 12-7 and were threatening a comeback, but Bob Turner returned a kickoff 59 yards to sew up the game for the Cherries. Jerry Prescott tossed two short passes to Hume Collins for Hickory's touchdowns.

Hickory	0	0	0	13—13
Cherryville	0	6	6	7—19

HILLTOPPERS LICK H.H.S. 26-13

A ninety-yard punt return by R-S Central's E. J. Huffstickler paved the way for a 26-13 R-S comeback win over the Tornadoes on College Field. It was the second time that a long run had beaten the Tornadoes. Short line plunges by Bob Lefevers and Norman Punch produced Hickory's two touchdowns and gave them a short-lived 13-7 lead, but Central went on to win.

Hickory	0	13	0	0—13
Central	6	0	0	20—26

RAMS BREEZE BY TORNADOES 33-12

In a game that was more thrilling than the score would indicate, Charlotte Harding's state AA football champs rolled over the Tornadoes 33-12. Harding used its superior depth to wallop the Tornadoes. Hickory gave the Rams a hard time in the first half, as Collins cut off left tackle for 49 yards and a Hickory score, but his boot was no good. Justice took Collins' kickoff and raced 80 yards for a score. But Collins came right back to take the ensuing kickoff 86 yards for Hickory's second touchdown. Again his kick was wide and Harding led 13-12 at halftime. The Rams scored twice in the third period to sew up the game.

Hickory	0	12	0	0 12
Harding	0	13	13	7 33

TORNADOES END WITH LOSS 25-6

Valdese blasted the Tornadoes 25-6 to end Hickory's season with a 3-7 record. Joe Temple raced 67, 50, and 9 yards for Valdese touchdowns to pace the victory. Norman Punch blocked a Temple punt and recovered it in the end zone for the only Hickory touchdown.

"THE PLAY'S THE THING"

BASKETBALL

The year 1952-53 was one of a little less success than the preceding year in Hickory High School basketball, but nevertheless provided its thrills and honors for Hickory High's teams, players, and fans.

The Hickory High teams ended the season with the Tornadoes in third place in the Western Conference with an 11-3 record, while the Tornadoettes were in fourth in the loop with 10-1-3 on the season.

Both Hickory teams had berths in the Western North Carolina High School Activities Association Tournament which was held at the Hickory Community Center. The Tornadoes went to the finals of the tourney before losing to Shelby's Lions who later were second in the state AA eliminations. In getting to the finals, Hickory topped Thomasville 53-49 and Lincolnton, conquerors of South Piedmont loop champs Kannapolis, 62-60. The Tornadoettes lost in the first round of the event to the championship to the Statesville team 85-60. The score in the final game of the tournament was 48-36.

First row: Paul Rudisill, Rhette Walker, Jimmy Belk, Herman Busby, Joe Mac White, Bobby Lefevers.

Second row: Coach Gene Miller, Thomas Bolick, "Doodle" Watts, Jerry Prescott, Dicky Jamison, Hume Collins.

For their performance in the tourney, several Hickory High players earned All-WNCHSAA honors, including Johnny James and Hume Collins for the Tornadoes and Jeraldine Clay and Sandra Freeman for the Tornadoettes.

James was later named on the West team in the North Carolina All-Star game at Greensboro, with H.H.S. Coach Gene Miller coaching the Western team. James narrowly missed winning first team all-state honors. Miller's team lost in the all-star game 59-50 and James scored ten points.

James led the Tornadoes in scoring during the year, with his brother Dicky James second. Sandra Freeman was tops for the Tornadoettes, with a record-setting scoring pace. During her first full year at forward, she also set individual game and tournament records for Hickory.

Thomas Bolick jumps and leans back for the ball as Jerry Prescott prepares to the floor.

Lanky H. H. S. forward, Thomas Bolick, goes high for the rebound and then holds on grimly.

Hume Collins looks on in bewilderment as Jerry Prescott, Tornado center, apparently rests on a loose ball.

Once again it's Prescott, looking pained as he drives in for another two pointer.

First row: Alan Carpenter, Robert Webb, Harold Pless, Lee Yount, Lewis Hasque.

TRACK

Each afternoon in the spring the swiftest boys from H. H. S. may be seen dashing around the track, heaving the shot put or discus, or just limbering up. These are members of our track team diligently training for various meets and finally for the conference meet at the end of the season. There are many different events to be entered with the most popular being the dashes, relays, pole vault, shot put, and discus. The track team which was formerly coached by Coach Bob Mitten has been given to Coach Frank Barger who expects a good team this year.

Senior Charles Abernethy takes the lead in the low hurdles as he paces the H.H.S. Track team over Morganton.

In the Western Conference Track meet, Harold Pless goes up and over to cop second place honors.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL RESUME

Paced by guard Jeraldine Clay and forward Pat Schell, the Hickory High Tornadoettes racked up an 11-3 conference record and a 16-4 all-over mark for the 1953-54 basketball season.

Clay was voted most valuable player on the girls' squad by her teammates for her defensive play and won all-conference honors.

The Tornadoettes missed getting into the Western North Carolina High School Activities Association tournament by one point. They lost to Lenoir 49-48 on the final day of the season to miss their berth for the year. Taylorsville and Lenoir represented the Western Conference, Northern Division, in the tourney.

Schell led the Tornadoettes in the scoring columns this season, with over 13 points per game. Betty Ropers and Linda Headen were the other top scorers.

Girls who lettered for the Tornadoettes during the year were Betty Roper, Pat Schell, Linda Headen, Carolyn Herman, Nadine Bumgarner, Jeraldine Clay, Juanita Yount, Doris Little, Doris Wright, Eleanor Powell, Betty Ruff, Mona Hudson.

Get that ball, Nadine.
Two points coming up, H.H.S. style.

During the finals of the H. H. S. Holiday Tournament Joe Mac White wrestles the ball away from St. Stephens' Lewis Huffman. St. Stephens nipped Hickory 46-43 to cop first place honors. Harold Lynch led St. Stephens with 15 points, while White paced Hickory with 17.

This was one of the most thrilling games of the season as the equally divided fans went wild.

Go Rhette go! It looks as if Rhette Walker discovered a new dance while watching Hickory guard Herman Busby attempt to steal the ball from St. Stephens' Jasper Bumgarner. St. Stephens squeezed by Hickory 46-41 for the second straight time. Joe Wagner paced St. Stephens with 15 points while Bobby Lefevers garnered 13 for Hickory. This game was a non-conference affair.

H.H.S. took its first conference win by defeating Wilkes-Central 72-35. Lanky forward Thomas Bolick is shown scoring a lay-up and being fouled by Wilkes-Central's Joe Cook. Co-Captain Dickie James led Hickory with 19 points while Cook paced Wilkes-Central with 10 points.

BASEBALL

HICKORY 3 VALDESE 0

In the non-conference season opener for the Tornadoes, Junior righthander Bill Baird tossed a brilliant 3-0 one-hitter over the Valdese Tigers on the H.H.S. field. He fanned eleven and walked three in the seven inning game. Dicky James, first-baseman, rapped two hits in three trips to lead Hickory.

HICKORY 4 SHELBY 2

Jimmy Colbert spaced five Shelby hits effectively to give the Tornadoes their third victory, 4-2, over Shelby. The fireballing righthander struck out one and walked three in getting the victory. Bob Helton, Johnny James, Rick Sherrill, and Bob Lefevers all had two hits for Hickory.

HICKORY 4 LENOIR 0

Bill Baird moved his shut-out string to 18 innings as he handcuffed the Lenoir Bearcats on three scattered hits for Hickory's fourth consecutive victory. Bumgarner, playing right field, lashed out four hits in four tries for H.H.S. Baird walked five and struck out six.

HICKORY 7 FOREST CITY 2

Jerry Bumgarner scattered eight Forest City hits effectively enough to get the Tornadoes a 7-2 victory over the Cool Springs squad. It was Bumgarner's second win of the season.

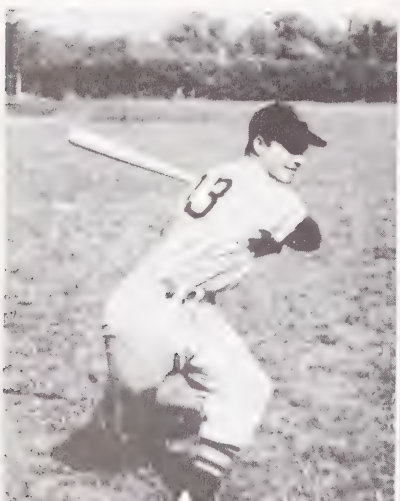

LINCOLNTON 4 HICKORY 1

Five Hickory errors and the hitting and pitching of Lincolnton's Pooch Cornwell were too much for HHS, as the baseballers fell to the Wolves 4-1. Herman Busby and J. James had two each of Hickory's eight hits. Jimmy Colbert was the losing pitcher.

NEWTON-CONOVER 7 HICKORY 1

All-State lefty Hom Isaac of Newton-Conover High swished the third strike past 17 Hickory batters as he tossed a four-hit 7-1 victory over the Tornadoes for Hickory's second loss in a row. D. James had half of Hickory's total of four hits. Bill Baird was the losing pitcher, having his scoreless string of 18 innings busted in the first frame by a 330 foot homer by Donnie McRee with one man on.

Co-Captain Bobby Lefevers—Outfield.

Hickory 4 Forest City 3

Bob Lefevers tripled with one abroad in the top of the ninth inning to pave the way for a 4-3 Hickory victory over Forest City High. He had two other hits to lead the Tornadoes to the victory. Jimmy Colbert got credit for the win, giving up nine hits, walking three, and fanning one.

Caroleen 3 Hickory 0

Jerry Caldwell was tough in the clutch as he handed the Tornadoes their fourth loss of the season 3-0 on the H.H.S. field as he fanned twelve batters. The Caroleen hitters got to Colbert for three runs in the first inning but he blanked them the rest of the way. The Hickory hits were evenly distributed among four batters.

Hickory 3 Lincolnton 0

Bill Baird and Pooch Cornwell of Lincolnton hooked up in a brilliant mound duel on the H.H.S. field, with Baird coming out on top 3-0. He gave up seven hits, walked one and struck out ten in flashing some of his early season form. Hickory managed five hits off Cornwell, including two by Lefevers.

Rutherfordton-Spindale 18 Hickory 15

Rutherfordton-Spindale took H.H.S. 18-15 in the wildest game of the year on the R-S field. Hickory blasted out 17 hits, including three by J. James, but the Tornadoes were also guilty of eleven errors.

Buster Ledford of Shelby limited Hickory to five hits as the Shelby Lions topped the Tornadoes 8-1 in a loop game. J. James had a triple and a single to become Hickory's only batsman with more than one hit. Jim Colbert was struck with the loss.

Newton-Conover 5 Hickory 0

Hom Isaac of Newton was a one-man team as he pitched his second shut-out over the Tornadoes, this time by 5-0. He gave up only one hit, a single to Bob Lefevers, and fanned 15. In addition, the lefty hammered out a two-run homer in the fifth. He gave up two walks, and Lefevers was the only Hickory batter to get a ball out of the infield all day.

Lenoir 7 Hickory 5

Hickory continued to fall in the Western Conference standings, as they lost their fourth straight game, 7-5 to Lenoir. Bob Helton and Johnny James had three hits each for Hickory.

Round Up

The Tornadoes ended the season in seventh place in the Western Conference. Dicky James led the Tornadoes in hitting with .321, while his brother Johnny was second with .301. The James brothers and third baseman Bob Helton were named to the All Western Conference team with the James boys rating honorable mention on the Greensboro Daily News All State team. Shelby won the Western loop title with a 12-2 record.

Sometimes in the excitement of a close ball-game players seem to jump when it isn't necessary and do other uncalled for things. This seems to be the case with Thomas Bolick as he goes high into the air for no apparent reason. After close examination we have decided that he is only getting a little higher for a better look at nearby action.

The saying that dynamite comes in small packages is certainly true about Joe Mac White. Despite a bad cut over his eye, the diminutive H.H.S. set-shot artist came back full steam in the finals of the Holiday Tournament. Here he shows that he is still fighting as he dives onto the floor after a loose ball.

The play was fierce and fouls were frequent against both St. Stephens and Hickory in the final game of the Holiday tournament. Both teams fought hard for rebounds and loose balls. Scenes like this were frequent where rebounds were batted around in the air three or four times before the ball fell. This was usually followed by a mad scramble on the floor and a jump ball or another foul.

Miss Hickory High

Crowned at the 1953 homecoming game, dark-haired Virginia Pope, Senior, became Miss Hickory High. She was similarly honored by the Senior class by being chosen Best Looking.

Virginia is this year on the Twig Business Staff serving as assistant exchange editor. She is also in Tri-Hi-Y, the Beta Club, and Quill and Scroll.

Best Citizens

Leaders in many phases of club work at HHS and outstanding in all their accomplishments are Anna Gordon Lewis and Thomas Gordon Bolick, Hickory High's Best Citizens. This award, one of highest honor, was bestowed upon these seniors by their fellow classmates.

Anna is Editor-in-chief of the Log, in the Beta Club, Alpha Tri-Hi-Y, and Quill and Scroll. She is also president of the "Y" council and is the winner of the D.A.R. Good Citizen Award. Thomas, besides being president of the Student Council, is a member of the Senior Hi-Y, Key Club, and Monogram Club. He is on the "Y" Council and is a basketball letterman.

BEAUTY CONTEST FINALISTS

"A pretty girl is like a melody" is the theme song around Hickory High during the season of the Beauty Contest.

From the ranks of the contest, several judges chose ten finalists from which the Queen is selected by a Hollywood movie star. Members of publications staffs have charge of plans for the event, including entertainment consisting of a chorus line, soloists, and a high school orchestral group. Proceeds from the contest finance the trip of official delegates to the S.I.P.A. convention, held at Washington & Lee University.
